EZAll Sponsors "W" Holistic Horsemanship Trainer Missy Wryn

"I am so pleased to partner with EZALL, a company that truly has our equine companions well being at the focus of their research and product development." Missy goes on to say "The skin is the largest organ of the body and it absorbs much of what we apply to it, so I'm very careful to research the products I use for my horses and my family. I can rest assured EZAll's products are not harmful to my horses, my family or our environment and I can get my work done efficiently when using their products. EZAll is a company I can trust with my horses health knowing I'm safe, too. Since I work with the WHOLE horse the health and physical well being is an integral part of my training program, and now EZAll is too."

Missy Wryn is a "W" Holistic Horsemanship Trainer specializing in problem and dangerous horses getting to the source of behavior and training problems.
