Empowering Women with Their Horses with FREE Membership at HorseMAREship.com

Women are juggling jobs, businesses, children, grandchildren, spousal and partnership relationships along with daily household chores and finances, just to name some of what they do. So when it's time to unwind at the barn with their horses they want unconditional love and support, forgiveness and joy. For some women going to the barn means facing a broken heart. They are disillusioned by their horse that is aloof, seemingly rude and disrespectful and sometimes downright dangerous. Well meaning friends and barn buddies tell them they should sell their beloved horse, or "get tough and show that horse who is boss". A woman's nature just wants a loving companion who is happy to see them, wants to be with her and compliant to ride, is that too much to ask? "Not at all", says Missy Wryn. "You deserve to experience the deep companionship your heart desires with your horse. AND you don't have to compromise your loving nature to obtain the deep connection and safer relationship. My horse training techniques are specially designed to balance a woman's nature with her horse's nature while invoking the horse's natural instinct to recognize her as the herd leader that the horse is genetically wired to require at all times, even in a herd of two, you and your horse".

Join FREE Missy Wryn's HorseMAREship.com where you gain access to watching horse training and horse care videos, coupons, discounts and a place to share your questions and knowledge in the Let's Talk Forum. All horse loving women are welcome no matter the riding discipline, breed preference, horse ownership or not, HorseMAREship.com is a safe, non-judgmental place to share your triumphs and fears while learning how to balance your nature with your horse's nature.
